

Broadcast ownership must not be expanded. The public owns the airwaves, and the purpose of the FCC is to represent the public, not special economic interests. Further consolidation of ownership is incompatible with democracy. Roll back the give-aways.